

Dec. 10th, 2018

RE 100

Sekisui House Sustainability Strategy

Ken-ichi Ishida

Managing Officer

Chief Manager, Environment Improving Dept.

Sekisui House Ltd.

Co-Chair Japan Climate Leaders' Partnership (JCLP)

Introduction of Sekisui House, Ltd.

1960

Established

No.1
in the world

2.40

 million homes

(Total number of homes constructed)

20

 billion US$

(FY2017 net sales)

GLOBAL PORTFOLIO.

Delivering high quality dwellings and cutting-edge environmental technology to the world's markets.

Efforts to achieve decarbonization by 2050

Declaration to remove carbon from housing life cycle 2050, a Japanese company first

Signed the Global Alliance for Building and Construction (GABC) at COP21

Joined RE100 initiative

100% of electricity from renewable energy sources by 2040

SBT Approved

35% reduction for Scope 1,2, and 45% reduction Scope 3 Cat. 11 by 2030

2008 2009 2013 2015 2016 2017 2018 2050

Launched the 'Green First' model to reduce CO₂ by at least 50%

'Green First ZERO' model

Energy-neutral housing(ZEH) launched

76% ZEH ratio & 35,881 houses achieved in total

Decarbonization

About Japan Climate Leaders Partnership (JCLP)

- 93 member companies
- Recommendations from JCLP for “Japan’s Long-Term Growth Strategy Under the Paris Agreement” - November 30, 2018

