

Session Overview

Objectives of session:

- To understand status of MRV system development including GHG inventory system and preparation and practice on tracking and evaluation system for mitigation planning and policies at city level. To argue how to enhance mitigation policies and measure at cities by effectively implement the evaluation system and MRV system.
  - Status on GHG mission at some mega cities in Asia
  - Progress and direction on MRV system
  - Practice on evaluation and review system on mitigation planning, policies, programs
- To share good practice on MRV and mitigation policies and measures. Argue gaps and challenges for designing and operationalizing and capacity development needs at city level.
  - Share experiences and lessons learned as well as good practices (from on going initiatives / activities /policy measures)
  - Discuss challenges/barriers for implementing the above and future capacity building needs.

Session Structure (55 min)

- Introduction
- Presentations:
  - Mr. Mai Tuan Anh, Director, DMHCC, Department of Natural Resources and Environment (DONRE), Ho Chi Minh City (HCMC)
  - Ms. Termisiri Chompoon, Bangkok Metropolitan Administration
  - Mr. Kimihiro Kuromizu, Climate Change Policy Headquarters, City of Yokohama JICA Chief Adviser, JICA-BMA
  - Mr. Ancha Srinivasan, Principal Climate Change Specialist and Climate Change Focal for Southeast Asia, ADB
- Open discussion and closing

(Facilitators: Mr. Luong Quan Huy, MONRE, Viet Nam and Ms. Yui Matsuo, JICA SPI-NAMA)